

Your Shabbos Davening Will Never Be the Same!

All week long, The Breslov Siddur for Weekdays helps you understand and appreciate the daily prayers from a Breslov perspective. Now, BRI is proud to announce the near-completion of:

the BRESLOV SIDDUR for Shabbos & Festivals

Transforming prayers into a conversation with HaShem

For thousands of years, and through the generations, the Siddur has been handed down as a treasured inheritance for every Jew. Now, you can be part of the Siddur tradition. For a limited time only, until The Breslov Siddur for Shabbos and Festivals goes to print, you have the opportunity to dedicate a prayer in memory of a loved one, in honor of a special person or as a Divine merit for a special blessing.

As a special bonus, all partners of $500 or more will receive a limited-edition leather bound copy of the Breslov Siddur for Shabbos and Festivals.

Special features of the Breslov Siddur for Shabbos and Festivals:

- » Complete Hebrew text of the Shabbos and Festival prayers, with a facing English translation
- » Beautiful, flowing, and clear English translation by Rabbi Avraham Sutton
- » Inspiring introductions to each of the prayer services that explain the meaning of the prayers from a uniquely Breslov point of view
- » Full presentation of the songs (zemiros) and prayers said at each of the three Shabbos meals
- » Complete Yom Tov (Festival) and Chol Hamoed prayers, including the prayer services for Pesach, Shavuot, and Sukkos
- » Illuminating commentary sprinkled throughout the prayers, quoting the teachings of Rebbe Nachman and Reb Noson compiled by Chaim Kramer
- » Synopsis of pertinent laws for prayers and practices
