

2 Opportunities to hear Chaim Kramer: Monsey & Staten Island

written by Yossi Katz
November 9, 2011

Dine With Reb Chaim Kramer

We invite you to join us and Reb Chaim Kramer for a special private opportunity to benefit the publishing of the final volume of Rebbe Nachman's Likutey Moharan.

We will have the opportunity of being able to discuss and ask questions and also be privileged to hear a mini shiur from him. We hope that you are able to attend and would really appreciate your help. The suggested minimum donation is $180 (tax deductible,) we do appreciate whatever you are able to give be it more or less.

Time: Wednesday, Nov. 16th at 8 PM

Location: The Purple Pear

106 Route 59 (off Main Street/Route 300)

Young Israel of Staten Island in conjunction with
BRESLOV RESEARCH INSTITUTE presents:

Bagels and Breslov Breakfast

Come join us for a Sunday morning shiur featuring special guest lecturer Rabbi Chaim Kramer of Jerusalem.

- Everything you ever wanted to know about Breslov but were afraid to ASK!
- Why is Rebbe Nachman's message relevant to my life TODAY?
- Why Uman?
- What is the real Breslov?
- Etc...

Sunday, Nov. 20th following the 9 AM Minyan

(Approx. 9:30 AM)

Young Israel of Staten Island

835 Forest Hill Rd • Staten Island, NY 10314

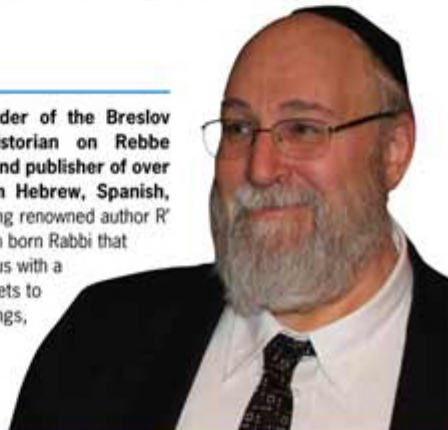

Saul Feder and Milton Pfeiffer will share some of their experiences from their Rosh Hashanah in Uman this year.

Men and Women are invited. There is no charge to attend.

Rabbi Chaim Kramer is the founder of the Breslov Research Institute. He is a historian on Rebbe Nachman, scholar, prolific author and publisher of over 70 Titles in English & 40 titles in Hebrew, Spanish, Russian & French. (Including publishing renowned author R' Aryeh Kaplan) R' Kramer is an American born Rabbi that offers up countless nuggets of chassidus with a down to earth like passion, and really gets to the center of Reb Nachman's Teachings, their relevance and heart.
