

A Portion in the World to Come

written by breslov.org

July 6, 2011

Rebbe Nachman once remarked, “Even [the glimpse of] the World to Come that we can experience in this world—when God bestows His grace upon us—is beyond all measure!” (Tzaddik 486).

Rebbe Nosson: The main goal of all our work in this world is to merit to be re-united back into Ein Sof (God’s Infinite Oneness) – and yet to maintain our separate existence. This is what we refer to when we speak of the eternal delight of the World to Come.