Series: Relationships with Chaya Rivka Zwolinski

For women only

Everyone struggles with making decisions. Am I doing the right thing? Will things turn out okay? While we can never know for sure what will happen in life, if we rely on the wisdom of the Tzaddikim, we can trust that we're aligned with Hashem's Will.

Traditionally learned during the late spring and summer, Pirkey Avot, the Teachings of the Fathers, is a classic Talmudic text, a collection of mishnayot that offer advice from the sages on how to live our lives and deal with ordinary—and not-so-ordinary—situations. The BRI Pirkey Avot combines Breslov teachings in a thoughtfully comprehensive commentary which make this classic text come to life.

Using the BRI text as a guide, Chaya Rivka Zwolinski and you will journey along Rebbe Nachman's path of spiritual discovery. This is advice for mind, body, and soul.

Topics include:

- What is Pirkey Avot?
- Conflict and Navigating Relationships
- How to Eat
- The Evil Eye and A Good Heart
- Dealing with Life's Challenges
- The Difference between Emunah (faith) and Bitachon (trust)
- Money Makes the World Go Round?
