

Are You Ready For Purim? Sunday – Live W/ R' Elchonon Tauber

written by breslov.org February 24, 2015

www.breslovcampus.org

This Sunday (March 1, 2015) at 6 pm (EST); 3 pm (PST)

Join us for Purim Prep at BreslovCampus.org

With the distinguished Dayan (halachic arbitrator), Rav Elchonon Tauber

Upside-down, Inside-out, Rightside-up

Laws, Customs, and Rebbe Nachman of Breslov's Mystic Insights about The Joyful Holiday of Purim

Our joy, clapping, and dancing on Purim make us worthy of receiving both the revealed and hidden (mystical) Torah. –Rebbe Nachman of Breslov

Purim is truly a day for rambunctious, rowdy fun, but it's also a day when Hashem sweetens harsh decrees. Learn the laws and customs of Purim as well as hidden mystical insights in this free class, Sunday, March 1st at 6:00 pm (EST); 3:00 pm (PST). Just be registered (for free) at breslovcampus.org, it's quick and easy. All members will receive an email with the class link on Sunday.

For the Jews there was light and joy, gladness and honor—so let it be with us.—Megillat Esther

About Rav Tauber

Rav Elchonon Tauber is the preeminent Chassidic posek (legal scholar and decision-maker), in Los Angeles, and one of the only Breslov Rabbinical authorities in America. Rav Tauber teaches Daf Yomi, Talmud, Jewish law, Jewish mysticism and the teachings of Rebbe Nachman of Breslov, in Los Angeles, California and online at Breslov.org. His special emphasis on hisbodedut (Chassidic meditation) and shalom bayit (peacefulness in the home) has been inspiring diverse audiences for many years. Rav Tauber is a co-founder of the Lakewood Kollel's Los Angeles branch and the Dayan of Congregation Bais Yehuda for over three decades. Originally from Brooklyn, he lives with his family in Los Angeles.