

ASK A BRESLOVER – KABBALAH CENTER

written by Yossi Katz

March 16, 2010

Question:

I'm currently a kabbalah student with the kabbalah center I wanted to know what is the difference between their teachings and yours is there is something wrong about studying there?

Ozer Bergman Answers:

I'm sorry, but I can't really answer your question since I don't know what the Kabbalah Centre teaches.

We teach that the Torah is God-given, at Sinai through Moshe (Moses).

We also teach that God requests, demands and hopes for from each Jew observance of all the mitzvahs of the Torah, to the best of the individual's ability. Friends of mine who spent a number of years affiliated with the KC have told me that the latter was certainly not taught there.

May God give you the wisdom and strength to do His will in every area of your life.