

ATTENTION: BRI WOMEN'S BOOK CONTEST NEWS

written by breslov.org

March 20, 2018

In the past few days several women contacted us. They are working on their submissions but are unable to meet the deadline for Rebbe Nachman: A Woman's Treasury Book Contest.

Because there are several women who would otherwise miss out, we've decided to extend the deadline until April 16th.

Please read more about the contest: <http://breslov.org//announcing-the-first-breslov-book-for-women-by-women-writing-contest/>
