The initiative has been running for over five years and B"H has been able to ship out thousands of books so far. All the books are shipped from its shipping center in Far Rockaway, NY. Prices on the books are completely non profit, books are sold for almost exactly the same amount the publishers were paid for the books, plus the sea freight shipping charges from Eretz Yisroel and the Pay Pal / Credit Card processing fees. Shipping is available via the low rate USPS Media Mail, to further keep the pricing down. Tracking can normally be added to each package for an additional minor fee.

Aside from selling hard copies of the books, all the texts are also available for free download as digital PDF's, enabling people all over to access these crucial teachings of Rabbanue at all times.
