This week is the double-Torah portion, Matot-Massei. In this fascinating video, Part II (Parshat Massei), Chaim Kramer discusses the deeper Kabbalistic, psychological and spiritual meanings of the travels of the Jews in the desert, the 42 encampments they made from the time they left Egypt until the time they crossed the Jordan river into the land of Israel. We must remember: Every little bit of good we do counts much more than we can imagine. Do not miss this video!
