Date: April 27 – June 15 (8 weeks)

Level: All Levels, Beginners especially welcome

Text: Rabbi Nachman's Stories: The Sophisticate and The

Simpleton

Rebbe Nachman's stories are among the most well-known in Jewish literature. In his famous tale The Chacham (Clever One) and The Tam (Simple One) Rebbe Nachman of Breslov invites us on a journey into the lives of two people with very different outlooks, each of whom experience life in radically different ways. Tanchum Burton will give a reading of this engaging tale, offering an abundance of Chassidic, psychological, and spiritual insights through a mixture of lecture and vibrant classroom discussion.

Each of us, at different times, experiences various levels of connection with our inner Chacham or inner Tam. Learn to recognize who's who and unlock the key personal growth and abundance!

In this class you will gain a clear understanding of these dueling spiritual archetypes as together you and the instructor, a licensed psychotherapist explore:

- Abundance Mentality vs. Scarcity Mentality as they Pertain to Spirituality
- Jacob (I have everything) vs. Esau (I have a lot)
- Probability vs. Possibility
- Developing a Holographic Sensibility in Life
- Authentic Wisdom, Power, and Wealth
- Manifesting Positive Change
