

Concepts in Breslov Chassidut for Shavuot and Beyond (Likutey Moharan 56)

written by Yossi Katz
April 26, 2017

The Kabbalistic concept of Malchut, Kingship, is an essential key to understanding and carrying out our life mission. Hashem is King of Everything, but each of us is the ruler of our own dominion. Rebbe Nachman of Breslov teaches that when we use our own malchut properly, we are trusted and relied on. When we abuse our power, we inevitably crash and burn. Our personal Malchut is ineffectual unless we learn, understand, and apply Torah in our lives.

In this course, Yossi Katz will discuss Likutey Moharan,

Lesson 56, as it applies to Shavuot—and beyond.

Topics include:

- Your Personal Domain
- Emunah (faith) and Prayer
- The Festival of Shavuot
- Torah Learning and Life
- The Manna
- Coping with Life when Hashem is Concealed and even when there is a Concealment within a Concealment
- Abundance, the Colors of Money, and Peace
- Mordechai, Esther, and Haman-Amalek
