

Counting The Omer Live W/ R' Elchonon Tauber

written by Rav Elchonon Tauber
April 23, 2015

Join Rav Elchonon Tauber in learning the practical laws of counting the Omer, as well as its deeper meaning.

Details to follow...

About Rav Elchonon Tauber

Rav Elchonon Tauber is the preeminent Chassidic posek (legal scholar and decision-maker), in Los Angeles, and one of the only Breslov Rabbinical authorities in America. Rav Tauber teaches Daf Yomi, Talmud, Jewish law, Jewish mysticism and the teachings of Rebbe Nachman of Breslov, in Los Angeles, California and online at Breslov.org. His special emphasis on hisbodedut (Chassidic meditation) and shalom bayit (peacefulness in the home) has been inspiring diverse audiences for many years. Rav Tauber is a co-founder of the Lakewood Kollel's Los Angeles branch and the Dayan of Congregation Bais Yehuda for over three decades. Originally from Brooklyn, he lives with his family in Los Angeles.