Like to read? Like to talk about what you read? Then why not join the new BRI-BreslovCampus online women's book club.

Don't miss out.

This is an opportunity to meet new Breslov-friendly friends, talk about the things that matter to you, and read great books—all online at convenient times via Googlegroups.

The moderator is Rachel Victor Goldsmith and the first book everyone will be discussing is Rebbe Nachman and You (book-club members get a 25 percent discount.)
