

Erase Their Name?

I thought I was imagining the dearth of media coverage on the recent (Adar-2 5771/March '11) terrorist (?) attacks in the Holy Land, but a friend pointed it out so it seems I am not.

There is nothing new under the sun. Lack of media coverage reminded me that Haman's son tried to erase from the royal chronicles the account of Mordekhai's saving Achashveirosh from being assassinated .

It didn't help the anti-Semites then, and it won't help them now. Thank God!
