

Excerpts from Breslov Research Institute Publications

written by breslov.org

July 20, 2009

Reb Nosson's Likutey Tefilot Prayer 44

HaShem my God, God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, help me always to pray to You with all my heart and spirit; with powerful intent; with true holiness; with purity and faith; with awe, love and clarity. Free my mind of foreign thoughts. May all my prayers take place on holy ground. May I sanctify the ground on which I stand so that it is as holy as the Land of Israel. Awaken my heart to pray to You with awesome inspiration, until my hands are so invigorated that I raise them up to You and clap them together in joy and wondrous animation for the sake of Your Name alone.

From the Fiftith Gate

Reb Nosson's Likutey Tefilot, Volume 3

Translated by Yaacov Dovid Shulman

Copyright 2009 (C) The Breslov Research Institute