

For Shavuot night

written by Ozer Bergman

May 17, 2010

Please remember that the following teaching uses ordinary words in a Kabbalistic sense. Construing these words in their ordinary meaning is [a] a mistake; [b] dangerous to your health.

The holy Baal Shem Tov teaches that at night, with our Torah study we bedeck the Shekhinah in her finery. By day, with our tefilot (prayers), we escort her to her “Husband” (as it were).

But this all happens only if we are careful to not speak any unholy, profane or non-sacred word, from the moment we begin learning Torah Shavuot night until after Musaf of Shavuot day.

Have a beautiful chag (festival), on every level.