

Great Humility In Uman

written by Meir Elkabas

January 26, 2017

The great Rabbi, head of the Beis Din, Rav Mordechai Halberstam of Sokolov, was so genuinely humble he would cry his heart out at Rebbe Nachman's grave in Uman as if he were the worst sinner. He is an example for all of us as we progress in Torah learning, to maintain our humility.

Like this video? Please LIKE, SHARE, and SUBSCRIBE.