

Pathways – Bo

written by breslov.org

January 10, 2019

Ronen grew up as a typical secular Israeli kid. After completing army service, he went off to explore the “magic” of India and everything it offered. While touring the country, he became friendly with some of the lower elements of society and kept up with them after returning home.

Keep reading this and more in this week’s Pathways.