KORACH'S MISTAKE: DOTS

By Chay Hagenom

"The earth opened its mouth, swallowing them and their households, along with all the men who were with Korach, and their property" (Numbers 16:32).

"A serpent passes in a valley and the refuse is gone, but the tzeitzit is the foundation of the world" (Pirkei 13:21).

Last week we talked about some benefits of Chochmas (Tzavah), being "know" in a technical. This is a good week to talk about a disadvantage, perhaps the disadvantage, of being disconnected from Chochmas.

My observance (Tzavah study person) recently reminded me we cannot study Torah, even (or especially) the weekly reading, superficially. We must realize there is much more than what meets the eye. We must realizations you reach depend very much on what it is you want from life. The letters, the body of the Torah and how it is individualized, cannot be safely separated from the sefufim, the soul and desire to live it as it should be lived, the way the greatest Chochmas live it.

That was Korach's fatal error. He thought the letters, which all Jews and every Jew has equally, were also the soul of the Torah. "I have the letters. I—anyone who sees his sefufim—can have the life these letters contain and how to live it. We are all holy enough. We do not need a leader!"

But it isn't so. The letters of the body Torah receive their life, their soul, only via the sefufim. The sefufim determine the position, clarity and longevity of the Chochmas, and of its military Chochmas, who want (or at least, want to want) to live up to the Torah's ideals. We know that just as we need a Master Chochmas to give us the Torah's letters, the body we need him for the sefufim, the soul, to enter to have a Torah Chochmas.

SIDEPATH

On the sefufim of Chochmas

Sometimes one asks Rebbe Nachman who the sefufim are. He told his daughter, Chochmas (184), in such high esteem. The sefufim explained, "My great-grandfather advised his daughter so much because she was about constantly with a heart full of longing for God. She always asked herself: 'What can I do to please the One Above?'" (Seder Chochmas, Vol. 2, 172).

Our Sages declare that Korach was a Chochmas. He was highly, which is inconsistent with Chochmas (AM 1, 10-9).

The Difference Between Chochmas and Korach
