Walking the streets of Israel, one of the most common expressions you'll hear is "B'seder." This is generally equivalent to the way we would say, "OK." However, in Israel, this expression has taken on a panoply of different meanings.

"Would you like to meet for coffee at 10?" "B'seder."

"How are you feeling today?" "B'seder."

"You cut my place in line – that's NOT b'seder."....
