

Peace in the Holy Land

written by Yehudis Golshevsky
October 21, 2015

Why is the Holy Land of Israel perpetually the focus of so much conflict and bloodshed?

Time: Sunday, 11:00 AM EST – 6:00 PM Israel Time

Date: Sunday, Nov. 8th to Dec. 20th (4 weeks)

Level: Intermediate, beginners welcome.

Instructor: Yehudis Golshevsky

Text: Likutey Moharan and Likutei Halachot, various.

For women only.

The prophet said long ago, “People falsely console my people saying, peace, peace...and there is no peace.”

We all are longing to live in a better world, and we’re all focused on the safety and security of the Land of Israel.

In this timely course we'll ask:

Why is the Holy Land of Israel perpetually the focus of so much conflict and bloodshed?

Why is the holiest place on earth always being torn to pieces?

And what do we really need to do on the spiritual level to fulfill the promise of the Holy Land?

Some points we'll delve into include:

1. The Nature of the Holy Land
2. What is Peace?
3. Eisav and Yishmael (Esau and Ishmael)
4. The Origins of Extremism
5. Developing a Vision
6. Genuine Leadership
