Our challenge at the End of Days is immense. On one hand we know when Moshiah comes he will spread the truth to the whole world and yet it is our mission now to clarify truth from falsehood. The tension is intense, because our struggle is so hard, part of us just wants to hand it over to the Moshiah when he comes, but that is not the point. Each one of us was sent down here to rectify the Creation. That is our mission and purpose especially now when the falsehood is so strong at the End of Days.
