Breslov Research Institute & BRI Women Announce

Rebbe Nachman: A Woman's Treasury

Making History in Jewish Publishing & Breslov Chassidut

The Breslov Research Institute and BRI Women are proud to announce the very first Breslov book for women by women, Rebbe Nachman: A Woman's Treasury.

This groundbreaking new publication will contain uplifting Breslov teachings, life-changing insights, and personal stories which will share diverse approaches to living a life inspired by the wisdom of Rebbe Nachman.

Rebbe Nachman: A Woman's Treasury will feature contributions from noted teachers and authors including Tzipporah Heller, Yehudis Golshevsky, Sara Yocheved Rigler, Gita Kramer and Chaya Rivka Zwolinski, and more, as well as personal stories and art (via open submission), by women at varying points along their spiritual paths.

This book will be filled with inspiring essays on many subjects such as Joy, Women in Breslov, Personal Growth and Inspiration, Marriage, Parenting, Emunah, Forgiveness, Hitbodedut and Prayer, Creative Expression, Healing, Life Stages and many others.

Rebbe Nachman: A Woman's Treasury will be enhanced by full-color art by women and a timeless design in a beautifully bound volume, in order to reflect the heartfelt Breslov treasure inside. It's a book you will not only want to read yourself, but be proud to give to your family and friends.

This compendium will appeal to women like you who want to better understand how to live with more inspiration and joy through the teachings of Rebbe Nachman of Breslov.

I cordially invite you to join the Breslov Research Institute, BRI Women, and me in this history-making project.
