

Searching For Hashem In Our Own Way

written by Rav Moshe Weinberger
October 28, 2019

Rav Weinberger teaches the necessity of finding your own way to serve Hashem by “turning onto a path to the side.” This side path is hitbodedut, personal prayer, which is the most lofty way to serve Hashem and is the key to finding the Lost Princess and is the only way to pull her out of the place of the “No Good.”

"Others tell stories to put people to sleep,
I tell stories to wake people up!"
