

Standing Up To The Test Of Faith

written by Rav Moshe Weinberger
October 30, 2019

Rav Weinberger explains how this world is a world of tests for each of us. All of us face tests of faith all the time. The impulse is to retreat to a secluded area but we must live and work with others. Sometimes when we are faced with an unbelievable test we must find a way to have “yishuv hada’as” in order to move forward and begin our own inner redemption.
