

Struggle To Free The Princess Locked Up Within Us

written by Rav Moshe Weinberger

Our journey in this world of doubt and distraction is really about connecting to the Divine Presence within.

Rav Moshe Weinberger continues to discuss the two ways the Creator runs his world and explains that our purpose here in this world is really to free up the Lost Princess – our soul that is locked up within us.

The world does not emphasize the power of faith and prayer, yet they are key to our self discovery.
