My father, z"l used to translate this pasuk, b'ito achishenah. When that time comes it will not drag, but b'ito, the time does come, Moshiach comes, achishenah, Hashem said I will rush things so quickly that in a lighting flash Moshiach will come, the Jews will rejoice the victory over their enemies, the Beis Hamikdash will be rebuilt, we'll have the kingdom restored and the Jews will rise to their rightful status once again. All this in extreme speed; achishenah.
