

Tikkun HaKlali for Women, Part I

written by Yehudis Golshevsky
January 3, 2018

Tikkun HaKlali, the famous Breslov prayer which contains the 10 Psalms revealed by Rebbe Nachman, is well-known for its ability to nullify the impurity of immorality, especially for men. Yet it is also a general remedy for everyone, men and women, a remedy which repairs spiritual damage of all kinds. Sin leads one to feel mired down in depression and frustration the process of repair leads to genuine joy and fulfillment in life.

In this two-semester course, Rebbetzin Yehudis Golshevsky will discuss how you can harness the power of Tikkun Haklali to rectify your life. She will share insights from many sources to help the students connect with and benefit from the these 10 Tehillim.

In this semester, Part I will contain seven classes, including an introduction one Psalm each week for six weeks. Next semester, Part II will continue and conclude with the remaining four Psalms, including a double-session for the longest Psalm.

Topics include:
