written by Dovid Mark
January 30, 2022

Rebbe Nachman's famous story begins with the words: "While on a journey, I told a story, and whoever heard it had a thought of repentance." We are all on a journey and we all feel we are missing that part of ourselves we truly long for. Taking only the first sentence in the story, Dovid Mark starts giving over Rebbe Nachman's Lost Princess as the new Breslov Campus Jerusalem semester begins

"Others tell stories to put people to sleep,
I tell stories to wake people up!"
