Dear Friend,

This Rosh Hashanah, tens of thousands of men from around the world will gather together in Uman. They'll forge deep connections with each other and the Tzaddik.

We know that women also want and need the Uman experience. That's why last summer, the First Breslov Research Institute's Women's Mission to Uman was launched.

What a wonderful journey we made together—the friendships, the spirituality, the joy!

Did you miss the summer Uman trip? Would you like to experience Uman this fall?

Here's what some of the incredible women who joined us on the BRI Women's Uman Experience visit to the gravesite of Rebbe Nachman and other Tzaddikim had to say:

The group dynamic was beautiful...quite unified, non-judgmental, and cohesive. It also felt like a giant hug.

Fonda Roth, Toronto

The first BRI women's trip to Ukraine was simply incredible. I constantly said to Hashem, "If we had to go home now, it already would have been worthwhile," and then an hour later, it had gotten even better. The whole journey was a constant dayenu.

Rachel Goldsmith, NYC

You absolutely nailed it. Accommodations, food, transport, and oh, yeah, kedusha too.

S. R., NYC

The trip was and still is a precious time.

Diana Korzenik, Boston

Thank you for the spiritual adventure of a lifetime.

Brenda Borenstein, Toronto

The Uman adventure was amazing, especially the feeling of unity and support for each other. I was doubtful that this cohesion was possible in such a large group – but it did happen, and it was a miracle! ... among other miracles of this trip. Now it seems like a dream – but also a vision of a possibility of Jewish unity and togetherness in service to Hashem.

Rivka Weinstein, Maine

Amazing! Love all the new ideas coming forth from this trip.

Miriam Chava Kramer, Boston
