

You Make the World Better & Better

written by Chaya Rivka Zwolinski

March 21, 2020

Many people believe that God created a perfect world. But the Torah teaches that God created a world which needs a bit of work. Each individual person is necessary to the story of the world because each person has unique talents and skills which can make this world a better place. Rebbe Nachman teaches that YOU are essential to the ongoing co-creation! Chaya Rivka Zwolinski explains.
